

Much concentration was needed to help Mr. Kirby balance the school budget each month.

All athletic events were attended by Mr. Kirby, not only because of his job, but because of his enjoyment of sports and being with people.

New Principal Faced With Many Problems

Many changes were made at Prescott High School this year, one of them being principal. The first year on a new job can be the most trying and discouraging, but Mr. Ted Kirby took advantage of his position.

A busy schedule kept Mr. Kirby on the run and leisure time seemed almost impossible. There were meetings to attend, checks to be approved, and discipline to be maintained.

Typing out the schedules for the day was part of Mrs. Nancy Burke's job.
