

Anne Morehead was chosen by the judges to reign as the 1973 Miss PHS on the basis of talent, street clothes, and evening gown competition.

Anne Morehead Crowned Miss PHS

Anne Morehead, 1973 Miss PHS, competed for this title along with seventeen other Prescott High School students in the fourth annual Miss PHS Beauty Pageant held Saturday evening, April 28th. The girls were judged in talent, street clothes, and evening gown competition.

The theme of the pageant was "This Is My Country", which was carried out in the production number performed at the beginning of the program by all eighteen contestants. The stage setting consisted of purple mountain tops rising above green topped pines.

The 1973 Miss PHS Pageant was sponsored by the Quill and Scroll and was directed by Mr. Don Mitchell along with Mr. Donald Crane, Mr. Paul Shaver, and Miss Colleen Ferguson.

A sophomore contestant, Candi Harvey, competed in the talent division with a guitar and vocal solo entitled "American Trilogy".
